Casa Pacifica Angels Ball Supports Children in Need

Thousand Oaks, CA February 7, 2013 – The Casa Pacifica Angels are pleased to announce the 24th annual Angels Ball will be held on Saturday, February 23rd, once again at the private Sherwood Country Club set at the foot of the beautiful Santa Monica mountains. A cocktail hour will get the evening started, followed by a gourmet dinner prepared by Sherwood’s fabulous chefs and dancing to a live band. Each year the Angels Ball supports the work of Casa Pacifica Centers for Children and Families and its wide variety of therapeutic programs and services designed to bring hope and help to abused, neglected, and at-risk children and families in the community who are in the greatest need. The Angels are honored to have Wells Fargo act as the evening’s generous Host this year.

Phillip Palmer, of ABC 7, will be on hand to serve as the guest emcee for the evening’s festivities which will include a special presentation of the 2012 Guardian Angel Award. This award honors an individual or couple who has gone the extra mile in their support of Casa Pacifica, its mission, and its children during the past year. Former Casa Pacifica youth will also be on hand to share their positive experiences as residents at Casa Pacifica.

Angels Ball Co-chairs Barbara Ito, Melanie Higashi and the Angels Ball Committee have worked hard to provide an exquisite evening of fun while raising awareness for a very worthy cause. Sponsors-to-date of the 2013 Angels Ball include: Host of Dreams – Wells Fargo; Sponsors of Stability – The Tesoro Family; The Wood-Claeyssens Foundation; Sponsors of Independence – Elise & Bill Kearney; Sponsors of Confidence – Montecito Bank & Trust; Sponsor of Achievement – Anderson Kill Wood & Bender, P.C.; Susan & Ken Bauer; Linda & David Catlin.
