

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CASA PACIFICA CENTERS FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES
A California Non-profit 501(C)(3)

Contact: Kristin Palos
Phone: 805-484-7144
E-mail: kpalos@casapacificafamily.org
For: Assignment Editor

Casa Pacifica Angel's "Spotlight on Style" Fashion Show Returns to the Runway at the Four Seasons Hotel Westlake Village

Westlake Village, CA - The "Spotlight on Style" fashion show will return to the Four Seasons Hotel Westlake Village on Saturday, October 6th, 2012, for the 11th edition of Ventura County's premier fashion event. The Casa Pacifica Angels are pleased to set this exciting day, featuring the freshest looks and quality designs from top designers, amid the refined quality and elegance of the Four Seasons Hotel.

A champagne reception will open the festivities as guests peruse unique boutiques where they can find a wonderful collection of accessories, clothing, and gifts available for purchase throughout the day. The dapper gentlemen of Meathead Movers will be on hand to greet and direct the guests, as well as help tend to them during the delicious luncheon catered by the Four Seasons's gourmet kitchen. The captivating professional runway fashion show will be produced once again by Carin Holmenas Productions and feature the latest styles from designers including Lourdes Chavez, Jessica Barkley, and Edwards-Lowell Furs of Beverly Hills. A silent auction will offer baskets filled to the brim with amazing experiences and personal pampering opportunities including a local getaway trip to a Princess Pelican beach home; Sunday brunch at the Ranch House Restaurant in beautiful Ojai Valley; a private wine tasting party for up to 15 guests at Vom Fass in Westlake Village; orchestra seating tickets to a performance of the New West Symphony; and many others.

The Spotlight on Style honoree this year is a philanthropic group of women called Girls on a Mission. These women routinely gather to collect whatever is most needed by Casa Pacifica's children whether it is pillows, blankets, and comforters or swimsuits, beach towels, and flip flops. Recently, they joined together to help furnish Casa Pacifica's new Stepping Stone houses for newly emancipated foster youth in just two weeks time.

Patricia Cordover, chairperson of the "Spotlight on Style" for the second year in a row, looks forward to a spectacular afternoon at the Four Seasons. "We have planned a unique day for our guests of fantastic shopping, fabulous fashions and delicious food –all to benefit Casa Pacifica's many vital programs for children and families in our area." Top level sponsors of the "Spotlight on Style" include: The Four Seasons Hotel Westlake Village; Haute Couture Sponsors- Anonymous, The Cassar Family, The Hiji Family, Meathead Movers; Couture Sponsors- The Van Huisen Family; Designer Sponsors- Susan & Ken Bauer, Patricia & Alan Cordover, The Levy Family, Montecito Bank & Trust, Morgan Stanley Smith Barney/Lydia Hopps and Ben Hopps; and the Rotary Club of Thousand Oaks.

"Spotlight on Style" Fashion Show tickets are priced at $125 each and are advanced purchase only – no tickets will be sold at the door. Various levels of sponsorship opportunities are still available. Anyone interested in sponsoring the event or in purchasing tickets may do so online at www.casapacificafamily.org, or contact Casa Pacifica Event Specialist, Kristin Palos, at 805-484-7144.

All proceeds from the "Spotlight on Style" fashion show benefit Casa Pacifica Centers for Children and Families. Casa Pacifica is a crisis-care and residential treatment facility for abused, neglected, or at-risk children in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties. Located in Camarillo, CA, the agency is the largest non-profit provider of children's mental health services. Along with its campus-based programs, Casa Pacifica administers a number of community-based programs which are designed with the intent to strengthen families and keep children in their homes and communities. For more information about Casa Pacifica visit its website at www.casapacificafamily.org or call the Development Department at (805) 445-7800.

#